THE CEREMONY

The ceremony will be held in the gardens of Camps Bay Retreat (maximum 10 people including photographer & minister permitted) and will be conducted by a local Minister. This would carry a compulsory additional charge of R2 500.

The minister`s services include consultation, ceremony, officiating the wedding and issuing an internationally recognized marriage certificate (The certificate takes 10 working days to issue, where after it will be posted to you via registered mail).

The minister requires the following documentation for certification:

1. Copies of bride and groom`s passports
2. Copies of witnesses` (two) passports or South African Identification Documents
3. Address of venue where wedding will be officiated
4. Address of permanent residence where you will be living after date of marriage
5. If either or both have been divorced - copies of divorce certificates

6. If either or both lost previous spouses due to death - copies of death certificates

The signing of the register will take place inside the Earl's Dyke Manor House at Camps Bay Retreat.
